THE PREACHER'S HEBREW COMPANION TO EXODUS 1:1-15:21

Jeffery M. Leonard

978-1-68307-346-8
$49.95
HARDCOVER
520 PAGES

Preachers know that understanding Greek and Hebrew can strengthen their sermons. Years after taking language courses, however, it becomes challenging to study texts in the original languages, especially when time is limited. This volume offers the following:

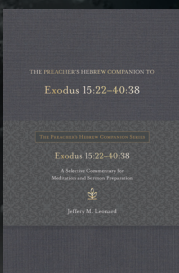

- A curated selection of key passages from Exodus 1:1-15:21
- Clearly formatted lexical and grammatical tools needed to study the Hebrew text
- A commentary section that helps preachers effectively bridge the gap between reading the Hebrew text and preaching it

Whether readers' Hebrew is beginner or advanced, this series will empower them to deepen their study of the Hebrew text and preach a content-driven, engaging sermon. This book, as well as the entire Preacher's Companion series, is a fresh and helpful companion to traditional commentaries and a valuable addition to every preacher's library.

FROM THE AUTHOR:

While some students lament ever having to take Hebrew and Greek, others lament the fact that the demands of ministry make holding onto the biblical languages so hard to do. This series is designed precisely for those ministers who want to continue to explore the Bible in its original languages but need a "leg up" to do so. With some of the grunt work out of the way, pastors and preachers will find this series an invaluable resource for letting biblical authors speak in their own words.

THE RABBINIC PARABLES AND JESUS THE PARABLE TELLER

David Flusser
Foreword by R. Steven Notley
Translated by Timothy Keiderling

A seminal work by Professor David Flusser, translated and published in English for the first time.

First published in German as Die rabbinischen Gleichnisse und der Gleichniserzähler Jesus in 1981—and now translated into English for the first time—this seminal work by Professor David Flusser remains an important and unparalleled contribution on Jesus as a storyteller in the Jewish rabbinic tradition. Using a literary approach to study extant rabbinic parables, he argues that Jesus’ parables belong to a genre that exists only in rabbinic literature and the New Testament. In order to analyze the theology behind Jesus’ parables, we need to understand them as a first-century literary art form.

THE PAULINE CORPUS IN EARLY CHRISTIANITY

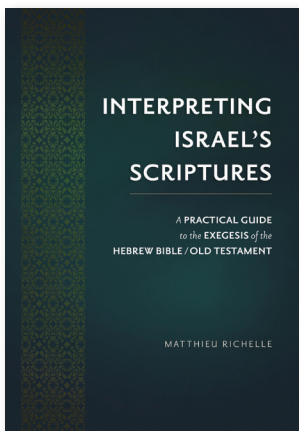

Benjamin P. Laird

978-1-68307-421-2
$59.95
HARDCOVER
392 PAGES

The Pauline Corpus in Early Christianity: Its Formation, Publication, and Circulation offers a comprehensive and wide-ranging examination of the canonical development of the collection of writings associated with the apostle Paul. The volume considers a number of clues from the New Testament writings, ancient literary conventions related to the composition and collection of letters, and a variety of early witnesses to the early state of the corpus such as biblical manuscripts, canonical lists, and the testimony of writers.

“How Paul’s letters were collected seems like such a simple topic, yet it is actually quite complex. No one agrees on every point, but Ben Laird is a judicious and cautious guide, introducing all the relevant evidence, major theories, and significant players. . . . All the materials you need for this topic are systematically compiled and cogently discussed in this one volume.”

E. RANDOLPH RICHARDS, Research Professor of Biblical Studies,
Palm Beach Atlantic University

INTERPRETING ISRAEL'S SCRIPTURES

Matthieu Richelle

978-1-61970-958-4
$49.95
HARDCOVER
432 PAGES

Many readers find exegeting a passage from the Old Testament to be a mysterious process. How should one begin? What methods should one use? Written in a pragmatic style, Interpreting Israel's Scriptures guides the reader by offering concrete methods for exegesis that are illustrated by numerous examples and accompanied by well-chosen references to secondary sources. The book is designed for use in exegesis courses or for personal study, as well as by students who know Hebrew and those who do not.

“This book’s clear and winsome presentation . . . makes it such a welcome companion for students at various levels and for teachers who, until now, have had to piece together what Richelle has expertly gathered in a single, indispensable volume.”

MICHAEL C. LEGASPI, St. Vladimir’s Orthodox Theological Seminary

CORPUS CHRISTOLOGICUM

Gregory R. Lanier

978-1-68307-180-8
$79.95
HARDCOVER
736 PAGES

A compendium of approximately three hundred texts—in Greek, Hebrew, Aramaic, Latin, Ethiopic, Syriac, Coptic, and other languages—that are important for the study of Jewish messianism and early Christology.

“Gregory Lanier has assembled a magnificent sourcebook of all the texts that have been regarded as messianic from the Bible, Second Temple sources, Targum, Midrash, and even inscriptions. . . . This is a marvelous resource for scholars and students.”

JOHN J. COLLINS, Holmes Professor of Old Testament Criticism and Interpretation, Yale Divinity School

INSCRIPTIONS FROM THE WORLD OF THE BIBLE

Peter Bekins

978-1-68307-209-6
$79.95
HARDCOVER
300 PAGES

Inscriptions from the World of the Bible guides readers through the most significant Northwest Semitic inscriptions from the early first millennium BCE. These texts—most of which are written in Hebrew, Aramaic, Phoenician, or Moabite—are contemporary with the period of the Israelite and Judean monarchies and provide valuable historical and literary context for the Hebrew Bible.

“Peter Bekins’ excellent new handbook meets a long-standing need in the field for an up-to-date, linguistically informed introduction to the field of Northwest Semitic inscriptions. Its clarity, comprehensiveness, and accuracy will make it an indispensable resource for linguist, historians, and biblical scholar alike. I look forward to using it in my own classes.”

EDWARD M. COOK, Professor of Semitic Languages, The Catholic University of America

STUDYING THE NEW TESTAMENT THROUGH INSCRIPTIONS

D. Clint Burnett
978-1-68307-137-2 / $39.95
/ HARDCOVER / 216 PAGES

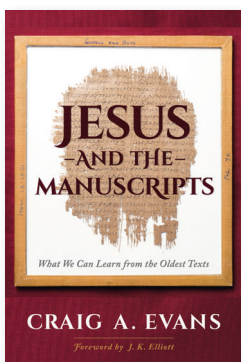

Inscriptions can help contextualize certain events associated with the New Testament in a way that many widely circulated literary texts do not. This book both introduces inscriptions and demonstrates sound methodological use of them in the study of the New Testament.

HOW THE BIBLE IS WRITTEN

Gary Rendsburg
978-1-68307-197-6 / $59.95
/ HARDCOVER / 675 PAGES

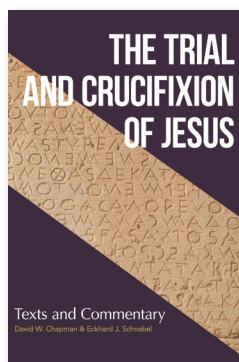

This book focuses on the nexus between language and literature in the Hebrew Bible/Old Testament, with specific attention to how the former is used to create the latter; topics include wordplay, wordplay with proper names, alliteration, repetition with variation, dialect representation, intentionally confused language, marking closure, and more.

JESUS AND THE MANUSCRIPTS

Craig A. Evans
978-1-68307-162-4 / $59.95
/ HARDCOVER / 575 PAGES

Jesus and the Manuscripts, by popular author and Bible scholar Craig A. Evans, introduces readers to the diversity and complexity of the ancient literature that records the words and deeds of Jesus.

THE TRIAL AND CRUCIFIXION OF JESUS

David W. Chapman and Eckhard J. Schnabel
978-1-68307-266-9 / $49.95
/ SOFTCOVER / 867 PAGES

The Trial and Crucifixion of Jesus is a comprehensive sourcebook for those looking to gain a more robust understanding of this event through the eyes of ancient writers.

Septuaginta: A Reader's Edition offers the complete text of the Greek Old Testament as it appears in the Rahlfs-Hanhart revised Septuaginta, laid out in a clear and readable format.

- Includes all Apocryphal/Deuterocanonical books, as well as all double texts, which are presented on facing pages for easy comparison.
- Every word occurring 100 times or fewer in Septuaginta—as well as every word that occurs more than 100 times in Septuaginta but 30 times or fewer in the Greek New Testament—is accompanied by a footnote that provides a contextual gloss and (for verbs) full parsing.
- An appendix glosses all words not accompanied by a footnote and includes comparisons of the uses of some of these words in Septuaginta to their uses in the New Testament.

"In this excellent resource prepared by Ross and Lanier, the text of the Septuagint is clearly laid out on the page with carefully chosen glosses for infrequent words in the notes at the bottom. It is presented in such a readable way that this will be the Greek Bible everyone should have on their desk."

A Handbook on the Jewish Roots of the Christian Faith is a comprehensive handbook that serves as an introduction to the Jewish roots of the Christian faith. It includes Old Testament background, Second Temple Judaism, the life of Jesus, the New Testament, and the early Jewish followers of Jesus.

“This excellent Handbook provides an exceptionally fine resource for studying the Jewish roots of Jesus and Christianity. It is a mine of useful information. . . . A particular strength is the fact that a good number of contributors are Jewish believers in Jesus who have a special sensitivity to the continuities between Jewish and Christian worlds. . . . Readers will come away with a richer understanding of the whole Bible and the history of salvation.”

Guidebook for Instruction in the Christian Religion is an introductory systematic theology by one of the foremost theologians of the past century. Alongside The Sacrifice of Praise, this is Bavinck at his best doing catechetical theology.

“Bavinck’s Guidebook . . . is by far his shortest articulation of Christian theology, but in no way should it be regarded as less rich than his longer works. Indeed, since this was written later than either his full dogmatics (for the academic) or his Magnolia Dei (for college-educated professionals), in some ways the Guidebook represents his mature thought. . . . It is a delight to see so much profound learning made so accessible. I can’t recommend his work highly enough.”

A Scripture Index to Rabbinic Literature is a comprehensive Scripture index that catalogs approximately 90,000 references to the Bible found in classical rabbinic literature. This literature comprises two categories:

(1) Talmudic literature (i.e., the Mishnah and related works) and (2) midrashic literature (i.e., biblical commentary).

“A Scripture Index to Rabbinic Literature is a most welcome addition to the tool kit of resources for the critical study of rabbinic Judaism’s creative interpretation of the Bible, covering its first thousand years. The Index is user-friendly, clearly organized, and attentive to the highest standards of such study. This is the first and only such index that is intended for the English-language reader. It promises to set the standard for many years to come.”

CONTACT HENDRICKSON PUBLISHERS WITH A BOOK PROPOSAL

Hendrickson Publishers is interested in works on the Hebrew Bible and the New Testament, as well as the Hebrew and Greek languages, ancient Near Eastern studies and archaeology, biblical theology, Judaism, patristics, church history, historical theology, and religion and culture. Hendrickson also produces books on biblical studies, Christian classics, and reference works for pastors and laypeople.

Please send a query email to editorial@hendrickson.com. In your email, please include the following information: name, degree, field of study, a summary of your book proposal, your book's intended audience, and a list of your other publications.

POLICIES

EXAM COPY POLICY

Hendrickson Publishers gladly provides examination copies of our books to qualifying professors.

Exam copies can be purchased (prepaid with a credit card) at a 50% discount, plus a $4.00 flat rate for shipping. Professors may examine the book for 90 days before taking one of the following actions:

- Adopt the book as a required text for your course, in which case it becomes a free desk copy (see below for details).
- Keep the book without adopting it for a course.
- Return the book in saleable condition.

If the book is adopted as a text, and ten or more students are required to purchase it, the exam copy becomes a free desk copy and the total purchase cost, including shipping, will be refunded. Please notify us of the adoption, including a copy of the syllabus and/or written confirmation from the school bookstore showing the number of texts ordered.

German Bible Society, Carta Jerusalem, and reference works (determined at our discretion) are excluded from this policy.

We reserve the right to refuse exam copies to individuals who abuse this policy.

Please request your copy at hendricksonpublishers.com/desk-copy.

DESK COPY POLICY

If you have already adopted one of our books as a required text for your class and need a personal copy for teaching purposes, request a copy at the link above.

PROFESSIONAL DISCOUNT POLICY

Qualified professors and teachers may purchase up to two copies of each Hendrickson book for professional and/or personal use at a discount of 40% off the suggested list price, plus shipping. This discount is also regularly extended to the members of most academic societies (AAR, SBL, ETS, etc.).

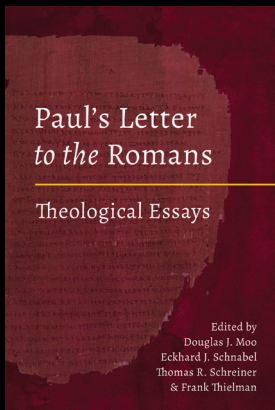

Orders must be prepaid by credit card (MasterCard, VISA, Discover Card, American Express) and may be placed by phone at 855-277-9400 or by email at csresponse@tyndale.com (please don't email credit card information – we will reach out to you).
